Tragic Accident

A very tragic accident happened at the home of Mr. A. Leiper, east of town on Monday the 13th, when his only child, a baby boy of 15 months, was killed by the accidental discharge of a shot gun.

Mrs. Clark and her son, a boy of five years, dropped in to call on Mrs. Leiper and while one was observing the little fellow got hold of a shot gun which was on a stand near the door. He had taken the gun out and was standing just outside the door, the baby was sitting on the floor inside, when his somehow pulled the trigger. The baby was sitting right in line and received the full charge of shot in the abdomen, killing him instantly.

Mr. and Mrs. Leiper are assured of the sympathy of the entire community in the sudden loss of their baby in this sad manner.

Geo. McColl while fixing a fence on Mrs. A. Simpson's place had the misfortune to get a crack on the head from the handle of a tool he was using, which held him out for some time, recent reports state that he is getting along fine.

Fast Game

It required but one hour and fifty minutes to play a ball game in Olds on Tuesday night, when Didsbury won 2 to 1. It was the opening game of the second half of the schedule, Didsbury coming out champions in the first half.

Olds were retired one, two, three until the ninth, when they scored one run to come back, shut out Didsbury scored all their runs in the final inning, long play fielding featured. Batteries: Didsbury, Stader and Clemens; Olds, Hansen and Hinton.

The game between Aldrie and Crossfield resulted in a draw, 7-7.

Agricultural Meeting

Posters are out advertising a big meeting to be held Monday evening, June 20th, at 8 o'clock in the Opera House, under the auspices of the Didsbury Agricultural Society.

This is a rather new venture for the Society, and will be one of the most interesting events they have ever given the public of Didsbury. The main feature of the evening will be a lecture by Mr. Alex. Galbraith, Superintendent of Parks for Alberta. Mr. Galbraith is a man of very wide experience in Park work, and those who have heard him speak on this subject before say that his speeches are a real education on agricultural work, and that he is a very interesting and entertaining lecturer. He will bring with him several reels of moving pictures, which are the property of the Provincial Government, showing views taken from all the principal large fairs in Canada and the United States. This alone will be a big attraction for the kiddies.

The lady directors of the Society have arranged a musical program by local talent, which will be highly enjoyable. Mayor Chambers will be chairman of the meeting.

As Mr. Galbraith is donating his services, and Mr. Farrington is giving the use of his hall for a very reasonable charge, only a small charge will be made for admission. Adults 25 cents, children 25 and children under 12 years 15c.

The hall should be packed to the doors for this meeting and you are advised to be there on time to get a good seat.

The Right Plow For A Tough Job

When you are breaking tough scrub land you need a plow that will cut all the roots and turn every furrow flat.

That Plow is the VAN SLYKE, manufactured at Edmonton. Its standing outfit, side-cutting fin and long roll mouldboard are features that put it in a class by itself for breaking. Your neighbor, who has used one will verify this. Ask him, and see one of the plows here. We have a number on hand for both horses and tractors.

Social Evening

A very pleasant social evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Stader Wednesday evening, the event being in celebration of Cecil's birthday.

A large number of Didsbury's popular young folks spent the evening in dancing and playing cards. As it was rather warm dancing inside, the lawn was commissioned, and under the light of the silvery moon, with the music floating gently on the evening breeze, the young people really tripped the light fantastic till about half past eleven, when a delicious lunch was served. Mrs. Stader acting as hostess.

With the dipping of the lights, everyone wished Cecil many happy returns and the party wound their way homewards.

Commits Suicide

The first case of suicide to occur in this town was reported on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Jacob Suderman a retired farmer and a well known man in the district ended his life with a shot gun. Information was phoned up town from some neighbors, that there was something wrong at Mr. Suderman's home. Constable Sisk was immediately notified and hurried down to the house where he was met by the gruesome sight of Mr. Suderman in an emaciated condition. He had evidently taken a shot gun, tied a cord from his foot to the trigger, and sitting down, with the barrel to his head, pulled the trigger. Death was instantaneous as it literally decapitated him.

The cause of his suicide is very much of a mystery as no one can find a tangible reason for his so doing. As it is plainly a case of suicide, there will be no inquest held.

Calgary Exhibition

In the program which will be presented at the 1921 Calgary Exhibition, the 1921 Calgary Exhibition, the management considers it has the highest class and most entertaining features that have ever been secured for the Calgary Exhibition.

An attraction which will undoubtedly be the most popular for many years is the musical choir of 300 voices, composed of the five Calgary choirs which competed in the recent Alberta Musical Festival. The choir work at this Festival was so good that one of the adjudicators, Dr. W. H. Hall, professor of choral singing at Columbia University, New York, said, "the choirs work at this Festival has reached the highest mark I have ever heard of choral work on this continent."

A forty-five minute concert will be given each evening by the musical choir, accompanied by a string piano orchestra which will include solo and other special numbers in addition to the choral numbers.

Another feature which will delight all exhibition patrons, young and old, will be the fire works. A remarkable display of aerial fireworks will be given and in addition a product, one of the great exhibits at Dover. This will be given each evening following the regular platform program which in itself would constitute a wonderful evening's entertainment. The live stock and industrial exhibits, the one product to be seen, especially good, and the prospects are particularly bright for the best all round exhibition that has ever been held in Calgary.

Stop the Wasted Effort

Compared with most countries, Canada has been free from serious industrial disturbances resulting in strikes and lockouts. In this respect, indeed, the Dominion has been most fortunate and it is not only a matter for national congratulation, but it speaks well for the soundness, common-sense and general goodwill prevailing in this country, and an indication of the fair-mindedness of both employer and employee.

Recently, however, the printers of Regina went on strike to enforce compliance with certain demands made by them and which the employing printers felt constrained to refuse to grant in view of present business conditions and the steady increase in living costs now taking place. Among the demands made by the journeymen printers was that a 44-hour week should be adopted but that the old scale of pay for 48 hours work should be continued. Other demands were for the adoption of certain restrictive shop rules which would have the effect of decreasing production.

One such rule was a further extension of a very vicious rule already in force—a rule which, while not benefitting the worker, imposes a burden of expense, not on the employers, but on the general public. It is a rule which makes a demand for the doing of positive and absolutely waste work. To explain: If a merchant inserts an advertisement in a paper and at the same time orders, say 500 or 1000 copies run off as a poster, the Union rules prohibit the use of the same type for the double purpose. In other words, the identical job has to be set up in type twice, whereas once would, and should, suffice. Thus double cost is entailed, and the public have to pay for it. The Union is laboring under the crazy delusion that they are thereby creating work for printers and providing employment for a large number of men. They forget that as the workers constitute the great bulk of the buying public they themselves are forced to pay for this waste.

As a matter of fact they are not creating more work and providing more employment; indeed experience has proven they are restricting both work and employment, because by reason of the increased and unnecessary cost of work there is less.

Any process of labor which does not produce something of value is economic waste, pure and simple. The production of something for use is the only way to increase wealth and it is only through the increase of wealth that more employment can be provided. That is to say, wealth is production. There may be prospective wealth, enormous potential wealth, in the soil, in the mines, in the forests, and in many latent forms, but such wealth is not worth so much as the labor of the people of the world, until labor is brought to bear and this natural wealth is converted into the things men require. And if men's energies are devoted to work which produces nothing they need, which is work merely to make work and serves no good purpose, then the sources of wealth are not increased but decreased. The whole world suffers, but most of all the workers themselves.

The workers of the world need to learn the lesson that the first requisite for the payment of the good wages they demand, and have a right to receive, is that the employers make enough money to be able to pay good wages. Wealth, let it be repeated, cannot be distributed until it is created, and whatever interferes with the creation of wealth interferes with the distribution of wealth in wages as well as in profits. When Union rules interfere with the creation of wealth they interfere with the welfare of labor as much as they interfere with the welfare of capital.

As a matter of fact, they interfere with the welfare of labor to a great deal more than they interfere with the welfare of capital, because about ninety per cent. of the wealth created is distributed in wages, and capital is well content with anything like ten per cent. of the wealth created.

It should, therefore, be the intelligent purpose of the labor unions to meet any depressed situation in business by increasing productivity and profits. Whenever labor, by restrictive rules, or capital by curtailing production, interferes with the material creation of wealth, it interferes with the material development of the race and with the common possession of the advantages of modern productivity as far as each restrictive act is operative.

There are, says an American writer, two fundamental facts to be recognized: First, that productivity is necessary for permanently high wages; and, second, that high wages are essential to general prosperity. The less the productivity, the less there is to be distributed in profits and wages. That is reasonably obvious.

And since the vast majority of the people of this or any other country are wage-earners, and general prosperity depends upon the prosperity of the mass, it is equally obvious that only liberal wages will create general prosperity and the general purchasing power, which, in turn, means the prosperity of every individual and of every individual business.

Therefore, let there be good wages paid for good work, and let good work—really productive work—be given good wages.

An Inch Of Rain

Weather Man Figures It Is 110 Tons Per Acre.

What is an inch of rain? The weather man has instruments for very accurate measurements of it, just as he measures the snowfall, the sunshine and the direction and velocity of the wind, to say nothing of the rise and fall of the temperature. An acre is composed of 6,272,640 square inches, and if there was an inch of water up it that would amount to 6,272,640 cubic inches. There are 2,240 cubic inches in a gallon, so that 6,272,640 cubic inches equals 22,000 gallons, and that much water would weigh 22,000 pounds, or 110 tons. It figures out, then, that an inch of rain falling is at the rate of 110 tons per acre. It is a good thing the tonnage is scattered over so much territory.

Testing Soil For Acidity

Has To Be Done Carefully To Be Reliable.

There are several simple tests for soil acidity used, but they are generally not reliable unless done very carefully.

The surest test of all is a plot test. Sow a strip of alfalfa and divide it into three plots.

On plot one, apply no lime.

On plot two, apply one ton of lime per acre.

On plot three, apply two tons of lime per acre.

If alfalfa does well on all three plots, no lime is needed. If it fails or does poorly on one line plot but does well on the other two, lime is needed. If it does better on the plot receiving two tons per acre, a heavy application is needed. The most common forms of lime are finely ground limestone, slaked lime, or marl. The plots used may be small if necessary so only a small amount of lime will be needed to make the test.

A SMILE IN EVERY DOSE OF BABY'S OWN TABLETS

Baby's Own Tablets are a regular joy given to the little ones—they never fail to make the cross baby happy. When baby is cross and fretful the mother may be sure something is the matter for it is not baby's nature to be cross unless he is ailing. Mothers, if your baby is cross, if he cries a great deal and needs your constant attention day and night, give him a dose of Baby's Own Tablets. They are a mild but thorough laxative which will quickly regulate the bowels and stomach, thus relieve constipation and indigestion, colic and simple fevers and make baby happy—there surely is a smile in every dose of the Tablets. Baby's Own Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

A colored preacher told some converts to a Louisiana river to baptize them. Seeing some anglers, one of them objected.

"Why, brother," urged the pastor, "can't you trust the Lord? He took care of Jonah, didn't he?"

"Yes, but a whale is different, he's got memory; but if one of dem 'fishers was as small as I, he'd 'jibe' go to sleep in the sun there an' forget all about me."

Pain In The Loins

Hamilton Woman Was Actually Afraid To Go Out On Streets Alone

"Tanlac has relieved me of my suffering and I just can't praise it enough," said Mrs. Margaret Beveridge, 305 Hughson St., North, Hamilton, Ont.

"For two years my appetite was very poor and I suffered a great deal from formation of gas on my stomach. I was also troubled with frequent attacks of dizziness and was actually afraid to go out or even get away from something to hold on to. One of these dizzy spells came on while I was calling on one of my grand children one day and I just fell right down on the lawn. Last spring, when I started taking Tanlac, I had been confined to my bed for a month and was so weak I could not walk. "Tanlac helped me from the very start, as I have not had a weak spell since I started taking it and I feel so good I can hardly realize that I am the same woman. The dizzy spells are gone, my appetite is fine and everything I eat agrees with me perfectly. I have recommended Tanlac to any number of my friends and, I am glad to say, it has benefited them all. I just wish I could tell everybody who suffers as I did what Tanlac did for me."

Tanlac is sold by leading druggists everywhere.

Champion Aviatrix Killed Flying at Altitude of 1,000 Feet When Plane Gave Way.

Miss Laura Bromwell, holder of the loop-the-loop record for women and one of the best known women pilots in the world, was killed at Mitchell Field, Mineola, N.Y.

Miss Bromwell was flying at an altitude of about 1,000 feet when the accident happened. She had just completed one loop and was about to make a second when something went wrong with the plane and it crashed to the ground.

Miss Bromwell, whose home was in Cincinnati, was 23 years old. She established her loop-the-loop record on May 13 last when she executed 199 loops in an hour and twenty minutes. That same afternoon she piloted an airplane over a two mile straight-away course at the rate of 135 miles an hour.

The machine in which Miss Bromwell was flying was equipped with a Curtis motor and was manufactured in Canada. It was of the so-called Canadian J.N. 4 type.

THE BIBLE AND H. G. WELLS

The press, of late, has been giving publicity to some oracular statements of the British novelist, Mr. H. G. Wells, about the Bible. Mr. Wells declares that the Bible "has lost its hold and nothing has arisen to take its place." To meet the need, thus created, he proposes a new and comprehensive Bible on modern lines, presumably written by himself or under his supervision, for we know of no one else in the world who would be likely to undertake the task of writing a book to supplant or supplement the Bible.

There are some subjects upon which Mr. Wells can write with comparative safety, as the questions which he raises are open to discussion, but when he states that the Bible has lost its hold upon the minds and hearts of men, there is a very simple and conclusive answer. The 117th report of the British and Foreign Bible Society has just been published, and from this it appears that ten new languages were added to the society's editions during the year. These bring the languages in which the Bible, or portions, is issued, by this Society to 528. Including the issues of other societies the total number of languages and dialects in which the Bible in whole or in part, is printed is 700. Some 160 languages have been added since the twentieth century began. The Gospel is being translated into forty more languages and dialects, and, in addition, revisions are continually necessary. Some 8,655,781 books were issued last year made up of 801,756 Bibles, 727,307 Testaments, and 7,126,728 smaller portions. The increase on the year was 139,851. Nearly 700,000 books were sold in Japan and Korea, 1,725,000 in India and Ceylon—more than half a million more than in the year before the war—and 3,000,000, mainly Gospels, in spite of civil war, brigandage and famine were sold in China. Large supplies were sold in the European States from which there was an astonishing demand. Russia remains barred, but there came news that a veteran worker kept a depot still open at Petrograd, though its shelves were almost empty. The Society was printing in Finland 30,000,000 copies of the Russian New Testament.

This is the book which Mr. Wells says is losing its hold! An abler and saner man than H. G. Wells—Thomas Carlyle—also had his delusions, one of which was the passing of the Church. In 1867 Carlyle thought that England had entered upon a hugely critical epoch, and he noted, in the public opinion of the day, but, among the things which "seem to be agreed upon by gods and men, at least by English men and gods—certainly to happen, and now in visible course of fulfillment" was this: "That, in a limited time, say fifty years hence, the Church, all churches and so-called religions, the Christian religion itself, shall have deliquesced . . . and shall, like water split upon the ground, trouble no body considerably thenceforth, but evaporate at its leisure." But fifty years are up and there is no sign of such evaporation.

So, we may safely predict, it will be in the case of Mr. Wells and his criticism of the Bible. Long after the world has forgotten that there ever was such a man as H. G. Wells, and his books have been dumped into the rubbish heaps of worthless literature, the Bible will continue to be issued in all the languages of the earth and sent broadcast over all the world for the healing of the nations. —The Presbyterian Witness.

Renew Your Membership
In The RED CROSS

During the war everybody gave to the Red Cross. In these Western Provinces, hundreds of thousands of citizens joined in the greatest flood of gifts ever poured through a single voluntary organization.

Because the need was vital, the emergency ever pressing, there was little formality of membership. Everybody belonged to and was a part of the war-time organization of the Red Cross.

Red Cross now has peace-time duties just as important to humanity as its greatest service of devotion in time of war. The Red Cross Societies of the world have leagued together in a broad-gauge, carefully planned continuous campaign—

For the Improvement of Health, the Prevention of Disease and the Mitigation of Suffering Throughout the World.

This work is to be carried out at home, right here in our own country by our own Red Cross and simultaneously in every one of the thirty-one countries associated in the World League of Red Cross Societies. The Red Cross peace-time crusade for good health is separate and distinct from the war work of the Red Cross or the great task that it is still carrying on, growing out of its care of those who suffered in the war. To endorse, support and carry on this peace programme the Red Cross asks the approval of every citizen through the enrolment of his or her individual membership. The Membership Fee is $1.00 per year. The payment of this dollar when you enroll your name is all the money the Red Cross is asking of you.

Strong Plea Is Made For Peace Of The World

President Harding Speaks of High Ideals of Canada and the United States, Following Address of Hon. N. W. Rowell.

Washington. — President Harding delivering a commencement address at the American University here, found the subject of world peace occupying so prominent a place on the programme that he was prompted to depart from his prepared manuscript and declare for the preservation of peace by sovereign states without the interference of a world "superpower."

The President's remark followed an address by Hon. N. W. Rowell of Canada, who suggested that the best contribution North America could make to civilization was "for men on this side of the water to stand behind the movement for peaceful settlement of international disputes."

"I do not think I could let the occasion pass," said the President, "without giving assent to many of the appropriate and appealing things just uttered by Mr. Rowell. I liked his expression that American and Canadian ideals are in common and when he spoke about the North American contribution to present day civilization and to the world, it occurred to me that the example of the two great people living side by side in peace, in confidence and in mutual understanding, is about the finest contribution that two nations could give to the world."

"I have said on many occasions that if all the nations of the earth were as honest and unselfish as our republic, there never would be another war. I will revise it today and say that if all the nations of the earth are as unselfish and devoted to their ideals as the United States and Canada there never will be another war."

"But if I may say without a doubt—note—for there is none in my heart—I call attention to the fact that the United States of America and the Dominion of Canada have dwelt side by side and settled their controversies satisfactorily without resort to a super-power, but by the exercise of the sovereignty of free peoples dealing with one another; if we can count civilized humanity to adding righteousness and exalting justice and inspire them with our example, we will have made a long stride toward the peace this world craves."

Western Crop Conditions Continue Favorable

Winnipeg.—There has been another week of almost perfect weather conditions with rains very general over the whole of the three provinces. Insect damage in the shape of cutworms and grasshoppers is still spoken of in several points. The cutworm damage is confined largely to Alberta with one small outbreak reported from Western Saskatchewan. As regards the grasshopper menace, all provinces speak of the pests, but the same reports say that all interested parties are on the job of combating them.

Indians Sell Standing Timber

Redskins Will Become Wealthy Through Big Deal.

Superior, Wis.—Contracts with Chipewyan Indians of the Net Lake, Minn., reservation have been signed by the Northwestern Paper Company of Colquet, Minn., whereby the company will pay them approximately $300,000 for from 25,000,000 to 30,000,000 feet of sawed timber and pulpwood in the vicinity of Net Lake. The deal marks the sale of the last large tract of standing timber in the Lake Superior district owned by Indians. Some of the Indians will receive as high as $10,000 and $15,000 for timber on an 80-acre allotment. From papers, many of the redskins have become wealthy.

The Indians are among the most primitive in the north woods and what they will do with their newly acquired fortunes is causing Government agents much concern.

Admiral Sims' London Speech.

Washington.—Secretary of the Navy Denby has instructed Rear-Admiral Sims to advise the Navy Department immediately by cable as to whether he was correctly quoted in press accounts of an address he made to the English-speaking Union at a luncheon in London, June 7.

Would Unseat De Valera

London.—Practical action has been instituted, says the Belfast correspondent of the Evening News with the view to making void the election of Eamon De Valera, the Irish Republican leader, as a member of the new Ulster Parliament, on the ground that he is an alien. A leading firm of Belfast lawyers, according to the correspondent, has been engaged to investigate De Valera's antecedents and already steps are afoot for collection of evidence in the United States and elsewhere, especially from De Valera's speeches on the subject.

True Bear Stories

Well he realized that if this shot was not a fatal one his chances were slim, still he went on with damnable courage, though as he told me his heart beat a little faster than usual. At last he noticed a huge dead spruce tree fallen across the trail, and stopping and studying the situation he felt convinced that Mr. Bear was either concealed behind this or very close to it. Creeping up to within a few feet of the tree, full cocking his smooth bore gun, he broke a dry stick sharply and on the instant over the tree came the grizzly, none bristling like an angry dog, mouth wide open with huge fangs exposed, growling savagely he charged right at Robert; he, waiting until the bear was so close the powder burnt his flesh, shot him right through the brain and killed him instantly. Robert crouched beside his victim that night and carefully skinned him, but like so many of his kind the skin was in poor shape, sears and cuts from his fights, also traces of several old bullet wounds. He was very thin and, as Robert quietly expressed himself, mighty hard chewing.

The arrival of the grizzly into our camp caused much excitement amongst the Indians as their huge claws are much coveted by the young warriors as signs of their prowess in hunting. Old Kinkishin, however, was the only one who had a necklace of these claws, it was exciting enough to hear him tell of his fights with them when on buffalo hunting and horse stealing expeditions to the Great Plains.

In my own case there was food for thought. Most of the winter on trip to India I was sleeping out and invariably alone, hardly ever carried fire arms and would certes have been an easy prey for a wandering grizzly.

It was the fifth night out after a trip on my beloved journey, with a game little mare named Nellie who was wise beyond description; I had a flat sled with a bulky load of furs; the weather was intensely cold, in February, I think, and I had selected a camping place somewhat earlier than usual; this in the middle of a small green poplar bluff, with a bunch of dry trees in the centre; near to the bluff the swampy ground was sheltered by scrub and timber and in this I tethered my pony to a green pole about the size of a fence rail, noticing the centre slightly so that the pole would not slip; she could drag this about keep herself warm by pawing the snow for the fresher grass underneath, but if she attempted to leave the swamp the pole would at once catch the trees.

About an hour's hard work gave me a camp a mile little clearing with two large logs of wood on each side of the fire, wood cut to about five foot lengths and you can then stretch your length and enjoy the heat front and back, for in spite of severe cold you are bound to sweat more or less with travelling. Unloading the sleigh I piled the bales at the back, and this with the snow shovelled (by snow-shoe) made a break from any wind on three sides while the front was filled with a glorious fire. After a good supper and a final trip to my pony in which the tether was carefully inspected, also a quart of oats placed on the ground for her feed, I wished her goodnight, remarking at the time "Well, Nellie, we have about forty-five miles to make tomorrow and we must start early if we intend reaching home. I think I will get up at half past eight and give a whole link nicker and back to camp I went. My large fire had burnt down to glowing coals so I at once made up my bed and a description of this may interest readers.

The snow had been well cleaned off and on the ground I spread five willows (there being no spruce), over this came a huge arnful of hay cut with my sheath knife in the swamp, and there is nothing warmer to sleep on on this my deer skin. Killed Lisa with the winter hair on and only scraped, not tanned as then it would be too soft and one would feel the lumps below; this is laid tall up so she lay against this side and I did not slip off. Fast covering a 3 1/2 point Hudsons Bay blanket, a jersey white, as they are so much warmer than colored blankets, over this my rabbit skin robe and over all my duck sled wrapper which protects the bedding from any stray sparks. The fire goes out, but no matter how low the thermometer goes down, and it must have been 40 below zero that night, one can sleep warm and comfortable.

Covering up my head as is customary and necessary when exposed to such low temperatures I was soon fast asleep, and after some hours sound repose I was awakened by a tug at my bedding. Was I dreaming? No, I could both feel and hear the animal moving. My thoughts flew back to the grizzly bear, the only weapon I had was a light axe and for the life of me I could not recollect just where I had placed this, over my head. Well, I was up against it and could either feel or imagine the hot breath of the brute, so summoning up all my resolution I threw the axe back and here was Nellie's side little head within a foot of my own. Such a relief. Looking in my watch it was twenty minutes to three, so I at once rose with the blankets gracefully draped round me and made on a huge fire. My, but the little mare did not let it as stripped her blanket off, it being covered with frost, and she carefully stripping, would turn first one side and then the other to the heat. I found on examination that she was fast tethered to the pole and would never part with her, she dragged it in through the narrow path I had cut to the swamp. On looking at the tracks I decided that when the pole would catch she had forced it straight down and continued doing this until her line allowed her to reach my camp. At breakfast, which I always shared with her, she would I found of both bread and sugar, I made a promise, and it was that I would never part with her, and when she got beyond work she would be pensioned off. This in due time happened and she passed a serene old age surrounded by her old friends, some of whom can be seen driving the little mare, handsome enough, but I doubt if any could show the same lion like courage and hardness which little Nellie proved on many a long trip.

Has Also Solved Problem of Making Other Metals.

New York.—Dr. Charles Benson Davis, of this city, in a paper which he has just submitted to Engineering Foundation, claims to have solved the problem of manufacturing gold. He declares he has not only successfully demonstrated the possibility of making gold and other chemical elements, such as silver, platinum and copper, by transmutation of a common element. He has shown samples of the metals he claimed to have made to members of the Engineering Foundation and has requested that body to investigate his claims and his methods.

Retalatory Duty On Lumber.

Washington.—The ways and means committee of the House decided to include in the Permanent Tariff Bill a duty on lumber similar to that imposed by Canada upon lumber sent to the Dominion from the United States. To Foster Cotton Growing Grant For Industry Within the Empire Is To Be Increased.

Manchester, Eng.—Winston Spencer Churchill, colonial secretary, addressing the British Cotton Growing Association, announced that it was the Government's intention to devote £1,000,000 to foster cotton growing in the British Empire instead of £500,000 yearly for five years, as formerly promised.

Mr. Churchill said that although much had been achieved in cotton growing in the Empire, it little compared with what might be done. Referring to Egyptian cotton, he declared it to be superior in quality and only second in quantity to that obtained from the United States.

Prices Must Come Down.

New York.—Prices in the United States must either come down or those in Europe must go up to meet them if the economic situation in this country is to be settled, Mark Sheldon, Australian commissioner to the U.S. declared at a farewell dinner given him by a session of foreign press correspondents. Until this adjustment has taken place, he said, there could be no resumption of the enormous prosperity the U.S. has enjoyed.

How about a road boss around Elton? From the looks of some of the culverts that have just been repaired they sure need another.

A Source of Power

The steam and gasoline engines represent the most powerful and steady source of power that we have today. The steam or gasoline is concentrated in a confined space which gives it this power. Do you ever consider this ingredient to advertising? The power that is contained in space occupied by an ad. in the Pioneer has a pulling power that is expended on hundreds of readers that you cannot begin to reach by word of mouth which is like the old way of pulling a wagon by oxen or getting power from the old fashioned water-wheel.

Departmental Exams.

GRADUATES VIII AND IX
The Hon. Geo. P. Smith, Minister of Education, announces a change of policy in connection with the Grades VIII and IX Departmental Examinations. In former years candidates for the Grade VIII Examination in outlying rural schools were required to go to selected centres where at least twelve candidates could be assembled for the examination. The Minister found this system to work a hardship on a large number of students as it necessitated many of them being away from home for at least a week living under strange conditions which seriously interfered with their chances of passing the examination. Much difficulty was found in securing suitable living accommodation for these young people and this added to the expense which the parents were asked to bear. Resulted in many boys and girls not writing the High School Entrance Examination. This year, all candidates for the Grade VIII and IX Departmental Examinations will write in their own schools, which would result in a much larger number of rural candidates qualifying to enter High School.

Candidates have been selected in all parts of the province where candidates for the Grades X, XI, and XII examinations may write. Each candidate for these examinations is advised as to the centre at which he will write. Any candidates who have not yet notified the Department of Education to write the Department of their intention to write the Departmental Examinations should do so at once.

Presiding Examiners

The appointment of Presiding Examiners and all local arrangements in connection with the examination will be in the hands of the Board of Trustees. During the examinations exchanges of teachers will take place wherever possible under the new arrangement, in order that the former safeguards may be retained as far as possible.
